

Eel Ground Girls' Volleyball Club

Network Luncheon & Discussion

Thursday October 25, 2007 10:00am - 2:00pm
55 Church Road, Eel Ground School
Eel Ground, New Brunswick

Eel Ground received a Team Spirit grant to support a First Nations Girls' Volleyball Club to introduce Aboriginal girls and young women to volleyball.

Team Spirit: Aboriginal Girls in Sport is a national project to increase community sport opportunities for Aboriginal girls and young women. The project is coordinated by the Canadian Association for the Advancement of Women and Sport and Physical Activity (CAAWS) in partnership with the Aboriginal Sport Circle.

To support community programs for Aboriginal girls and young women and collect stories to share with individuals and organizations across Canada, Eel Ground School, the Aboriginal Sport Circle and CAAWS want to talk to you!

WHO IS THE MEETING FOR?

- Anyone concerned with the health of Aboriginal girls and young women – elders, council members, parents, recreation practitioners, teachers, health promoters, coaches, sport administrators, social service providers...

WHAT WILL BE DISCUSSED?

- What are the benefits of sport and physical activity for girls and young women in Eel Ground? What barriers do girls and young women confront to their participation?
- Share your community sport and physical activity experiences, and program successes and challenges – what has been done before in Eel Ground?
- Learn about the Girls' Volleyball Club and how you can be involved.
- Hear about the national Team Spirit project, the Aboriginal Sport Circle, and the Canadian Association for the Advancement of Women and Sport and Physical Activity (CAAWS).

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

- This event is FREE!
- Lunch will be provided
